MIKE BUDDIE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

@BUDDIE52

1ST YEAR

WAKE FOREST, 1993

Mike Buddie was announced by United States Military Academy Superintendent Lt. Gen. Darryl A. Williams as Army West Point's new director of athletics on May 22, 2019.

Buddie arrives at West Point from Furman after leading the Paladins to a major resurgence on and off the field. He negotiated a multi-year partnership with Nike, produced the department's first balanced budget and spearheaded an effort to bring the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament back to up-state South Carolina in 2017, while also landing two future tournament stops. He also secured several major financial gifts, including a trio of $1 million dollar endowments in support of the football and volleyball programs.

Under Buddie's leadership, the Paladins won 26 Southern Conference Championships and most recently a 73rd place finish among 294 NCAA Division I qualifying schools in Learfield Sports' Director's Cup competitions in 2018.

Prior to Furman, Buddie spent a decade at Wake Forest where he oversaw a number of different areas with the Demon Deacons, serving as the sport administrator for baseball, women's soccer, and men's golf squads while also working with the football and men's basketball programs.

He cultivated relationships with donors for major gift opportunities and oversaw construction, event management, multi-media, and auxiliary revenue units. In addition, he was involved with contracts, conference issues, NCAA legislation, and capital projects.

Buddie is a 1993 graduate of Wake Forest, where he was a three-year letter winner as a pitcher for the Demon Deacons baseball team. He was drafted by the New York Yankees in the fourth round of the 1992 Major League Baseball draft. During his career, Buddie was a pitcher for the New York Yankees and the Milwaukee Brewers from 1998 to 2002 and was a member of the Yankees' 1998 World Series championship team.

A Berea, Ohio, native, and graduate of St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland, Ohio.

Buddie and his wife, Traci, have two children, Zachary and Zoe.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT BUDDIE

"Mike is an outstanding leader. He has extremely high expectations of everyone in the department that he leads but he reserves the highest expectations for himself. He leads using all of his strengths, whether it be his communication skills, his work ethic, his integrity or his role modeling. He empowers people who demonstrate their ability to perform their tasks efficiently and effectively. He is also creative, always searching for new ways to improve the department. Mike will quickly establish himself at Army West Point as someone who will build upon the successes and traditions of the Academy and lead the program to even a higher level."

"Mike is someone who can be trusted. When he commits to something, he will achieve it. He is motivated by challenges and never backs away from them. He enjoys working with others and forming teams to accomplish items that are important to the department. People naturally enjoy his company and want to be part of his team. Coaches appreciate him because they know that Mike understands them. He was a professional athlete as a major league baseball player and appreciates what it takes to be successful as an athlete and coach."

- Ron Wellman, former Wake Forest Director of Athletics

"Mike has been a tremendous asset to the Division I Baseball Committee. As a former student-athlete and professional player, his knowledge and understanding of the game have been invaluable. Mike brings great energy and enthusiasm that is infectious. His collaborative and inclusive approach make him a pleasure to work with. I'm sure his strategic and thoughtful approach will benefit all of those associated with the Black Knights program."

- Anthony Holman, Managing Director of Championships & Alliances at the NCAA

"Mike Buddie is a great leader, a proven winner and a high level person. He consistently shows great leadership through his genuine care for people, his understanding and appreciation for the intensity of college athletics and his willingness to partner with coaches and administration in identifying solutions to challenging problems. Without Mike's leadership over the past four years, our basketball program would not be where it is today and I wish him, and Army athletics, great success."

- Bob Richey, Furman Head Men's Basketball Coach

"Mike is competitive and driven and yet at the same time he has a humility about him that makes him very approachable."

- Dave Clawson, Wake Forest Head Football Coach

"Mike is one of the most special athletes we've ever had pass through Saint Ignatius High School. Seeing what he did professionally after going to Wake Forest and then working his way into athletics has been tremendous to watch. It's not a surprise to me that he continues moving up in the world of collegiate athletics. He is an amazing person and a great leader. He will do big things at Army."

- Rory Fitzpatrick, current Saint Ignatius Athletic Director and former Saint Ignatius football teammate

JEFF MONKEN

@COACHJEFFMONKEN

HEAD COACH

6TH SEASON

MILLIKIN, 1989

Jeff Monken heads into his sixth season at the helm of Army West Point football in 2019 after being named the 37th individual head coach in program history on Dec. 24, 2013.

Monken shows a 71-44 career record as a head coach and a 35-28 mark at Army. The Black Knights have enjoyed success over the past three seasons with a 29-10 record, including back-to-back wins over Air Force, three-straight wins over Navy and three consecutive bowl-game victories.

Just a season ago Monken led the Cadets to a historic year as his squad became nationally ranked in early November for the first time in 22 years (1996). They remained in the Top-25 throughout the rest of the season and finished ranked No. 19 in the Associated Press Poll and No. 20 in the Amway Coaches Poll. The year was highlighted by a program-record 11 wins, marking the first time in Academy history the Black Knights registered 10-plus wins in back-to-back seasons. Army also won the Commander In Chief's trophy in consecutive seasons for the first time in program lore, while also garnering the Lambert Trophy for the first time in 60 years. The Black Knights became the first three-time winner of the Armed Forces Bowl as well that season after they routed Houston, 70-14, on Dec. 22. The 70 points put up by Army in that contest tied an FBS record for points scored in a bowl game.

To cap the 2018 season, the Cadets won 13 games in a row at home and finished their second-straight season going unbeaten at Michie Stadium. They held five consecutive opponents to 14 or less points to end the year as well and finished 11-0 when leading at the half. Army closed the year ranked first nationally in third down conversion percentage (.571), fourth down conversion percentage (.861), and time of possession (38:33), while also sitting second in rushing offense with 312.5 yards per game.

Twelve cadet-athletes were named to the Phil Steele's All-Independent Team, and Monken received national praise after winning the George Munger Collegiate Coach of the Year Award and the Vince Lombardi Award for National College Coach of the Year. He was also named a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant and Eddie Robinson Awards for Coach of the Year.

In 2017 Monken led Army to its most successful season in over two decades, earning 10 victories, the Commander in Chief's Trophy and a victory in the Armed Forces Bowl. The Black Knights won the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision rushing title by averaging 362.3 rushing yards per game and finished with 50 rushing touchdowns, which broke the program record for a single season set a year prior. On the other side of the ball, Army was third in the nation in red zone defense and 14th against the pass. The Black Knights held opponents to 22 points per game and ended Air Force's 306-game scoring streak with a 21-0 victory at Falcon Stadium. It was the first shutout against a service academy since 1969. The Black Knights were also rewarded for their success as the ECAC Division I FBS Team of the Year.

The 2016 season was a memorable one for the Black Knights under Monken. He led them to their first win over Navy since 2001 and a victory in a bowl game. The last time the Black Knights accomplished both feats in the same season was in 1984. Army was second in the nation in rushing offense and ran for a then Academy single-season 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team. Defensively, Army was consistently in the Top-10 in total defense and closed out the year fourth in the nation.

In 2015, Monken coached Army to a pair of wins over Bucknell and Eastern Michigan. The Black Knights had five players reach 100 yards rushing in a game that year and had three different quarterbacks throw for 100 yards. Signal callers Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter ran and threw for 100 yards in their career debuts. Army won on the road for the first time since 2010 with a 58-36 win over Eastern Michigan as well. The Black Knights closed the season ranked 12th in the country in rushing offense at 244.3 yards per game. Linebacker Andrew King finished 21st in the nation in tackles for loss with an average of 2.1 per game and 26th in fumbles recovered with two.

In his first season at Army, Monken guided the Cadets to home victories over Buffalo, Ball State and Fordham, in addition to a dramatic win against Connecticut at Yankee Stadium. Under his guidance, running back Larry Dixon, linebacker Jeremy Timpf, defensive back Josh Jenkins and offensive lineman Matt Hugenberg earned 11 citations on postseason all-star teams. Two players, Joe Drummond and Dixon, competed in The Medal of Honor Bowl Game and East-West Shrine Game, respectively, as well.

Army was fifth in the country in rushing offense at 296.5 yards per game in Monken's inaugural season and sixth in fewest penalties per game with just 4.08 infractions per contest. He tutored a host of players who were listed in the national rankings as well. Timpf was seventh in the nation in solo tackles per game and 23rd in tackles per game. Jenkins was eighth in the country in blocked kicks and 33rd in interceptions per game, and both Lamar Johnson-Harris and Xavier Moss ranked 11th in punt return touchdowns. Dixon was nationally ranked in rushing yards per carry (30th), rushing yards (39th) and rushing yards per game (41st).

With the Black Knights' 47-39 win against Buffalo, Monken became the first head coach to win his first game since Bob Sutton did so in 1991 with a victory over Colgate. Prior to that, the last Army coach to win his first game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent was Ed Cavanaugh in 1980. Monken came to the banks of the Hudson River following a successful stint as head coach at Georgia Southern. He spent four seasons as head coach of the Eagles after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

COACH MONKEN SITTING WITH THE ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY CREW PRIOR TO THE START OF THE ARMY-NAVY GAME ON DEC. 8, 2018

In his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 38-16 mark and spearheaded the programs transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which joined the Sun Belt Conference following Monken's tenure, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under him. The Eagles advanced to the national semifinals each year, while also posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably being a 26-20 victory at Florida at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, the Eagles were not eligible for the FCS playoffs that season due to their transitional status.

Monken and Johnson are the only coaches in Georgia Southern school history to win at least 10 games in each of their first three seasons. A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided the Eagles to 10 wins his first season, 11 his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063. Monken coached a lengthy list of all-stars, including the school's highest-ever National Football League draft choice, safety J.J. Wilcox, a third-round selection by the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks in 2011 and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign.

Monken got off to a great start in his first year at Georgia Southern, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State en route to its a 10-5 season. The Eagles ended the year with three straight wins to qualify for the post-season and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

In addition to the success on the field, Monken helped Georgia Southern re-emerge academically with the team's cumulative grade point average ranking as the highest in school history in each of his first two seasons. Not only were the Eagles successful in the classroom and on the football field under Monken, but the players and staffs were part of several community service programs and local events.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional ranks.

Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five-straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. The Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring four out of five seasons as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, he later added special teams coordinator duties.

In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five-straight Commander in Chief trophies and five consecutive bowl game appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004. Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as the slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated.

Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State. Monken moved to Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach who also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as the head coach and at Concordia University in Illinois as the offensive line coach.

A native of Joliet, Ill., Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field, while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in October 2013 and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth reside at West Point with their three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia and Evangeline.

BRENT DAVIS

ASSISTANT COACH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE
6TH SEASON
GEORGIA, 1997

Brent Davis is in his sixth season with the Army West Point football team serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

With help from Davis the Black Knights have enjoyed success over the past three seasons posting a 29-10 record, including back-to-back wins over Air Force, three-straight wins over Navy and three consecutive bowl-game victories.

Under his guidance, the Cadets' offense has ranked in the top three nationally the last three seasons. Last year the Cadets finished second with 312.5 rushing yards per game. They also ranked first in three different categories to close out the year: third down conversion percentage (.571), fourth down conversion percentage (.861), and time of possession (38:33). Davis coached six players to Phil Steele All-Independent Team honors in 2018, including two linemen in Bryce Holland and Jaxson Deaton.

Holland, a team captain, was named to the USA Today All-Bowl Team and an All-ECAC First Team recipient as well. Also garnering recognition in 2018 was the offensive line, that was selected to the Sports Illustrated All-Bowl Team. The o-line blocked for an impressive Army running game that compiled an FBS bowl game record tying 70 points in its victory over Houston on Dec. 22. That same line helped the Army offense rush for over 4,000 yards on the year, which ranked second in the country.

Davis also had a hand in the success of Kelvin Hopkins Jr. and Darnell Woolfolk. In 2018 Hopkins Jr. became the first player in Academy history to throw and rush for 1,000 yards in the same season. His five rushing touchdowns in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl tied the Black Knights' single-game record and his 77-yard TD scamper during that contest was the longest run in Army's bowl history. Hopkins Jr. closed out his first year as the primary play caller with 17 rushing touchdowns, which tied Carlton Jones and Trent Steelman for a single-season program record.

Woolfolk finished his career tied for third in program history with 37 touchdowns after compiling 14 during his final campaign. He rushed for a career-best 956 yards in 2018 and ended his tenure ninth all-time in Academy lore with 2,368 yards. Woolfolk was also selected to play in the 2018 East-West Shrine Game following his impressive senior season.

In 2017, Davis was honored as a nominee for the Broyles Award, which is given to the top assistant coach in the country, after leading the Black Knights to an NCAA rushing title with 362.3 yards per game. Army also set a new Academy record scoring 50 rushing touchdowns to finish second in the nation in that category. The Cadets led the country in total rushing yards with 4,710 on the year as well.

That year quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw broke the single-season service-academy rushing record with 1,746 yards, which was high enough for fifth in the country at the end of the year. Bradshaw finished sixth in the nation with 134.3 rushing yards per contest. He averaged an impressive 7.21 yards per carry, which was also in the top 10 nationally.

Offensive lineman Brett Toth was a participant in the 2017 Reese's Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game.

Toth was also a member of the Associated Press All-Bowl Team, while lineman Holland was awarded with a spot on the ESPN All-Bowl Team.

In 2016 the offensive unit ranked second in the nation in rushing offense with 339 rushing yards per game and 5.6 yards per rush. Army ran for over 500 yards twice that season and racked up 4,412 total rushing yards, which was the third most in Academy history for a single season. Under Davis, the Black Knights ran for a then Academy record 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team that had 45 that season. Army was aided that year by fullback Andy Davidson and Bradshaw, who both ran for over 900 yards. Davidson rushed for 12 touchdowns for eighth all-time in a single season and the most since Trent Steelman achieved 12 in 2011.

Davis led a Black Knights offense in 2015 that was 12th in the nation with 244.3 rushing yards per game. He guided six players to 100-yard rushing games during the season, including two from Bradshaw and Aaron Kemper. Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their career debuts under Davis and ran and threw for 100 yards in their first game in an Army uniform.

The Cadets' passing attack under Davis saw Edgar Poe record two 100-yard receiving games, including 121 yards on five catches against Navy. Poe had six touchdowns, which was the most by an Army receiver since 2007. Davis also coached Army to 34 total touchdowns in 2015 with 24 coming by way of the ground game.

In his first season at Army, Davis guided an offense that was fifth in the country in rushing yards per contest at 296.5. He tutored running back Larry Dixon, who rushed for 1,102 yards as a senior and for more than 3,000 yards throughout his career. Dixon was 39th in the nation in rushing yards during his final campaign and 40th in rushing yards per contest at 91.8. With guidance from Davis, quarterback Angel Santiago ranked 60th in the country with 10 rushing touchdowns as well.

As the primary play-caller, Davis led Army to 33 rushing touchdowns and 358.8 yards of total offense per contest that season. Davis also worked with the offensive line, a unit that featured a different starting five on 10 occasions and still had Army among the nation's rushing leaders. Center Matt Hugenberg was named to two different postseason all-star teams, and Dixon collected honors for three different squads.

Prior to Army, Davis spent four seasons as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in his second stint in Statesboro, Ga. A veteran triple option coordinator, Davis helped the Eagles to three consecutive trips to the national semifinals. Georgia Southern boasted the top rushing offense in two consecutive seasons in 2011 and 2012.

Davis also coached at Georgia Southern from 1997-05 when he guided the offensive line and running backs as the Eagles won seven conference championships and made eight playoff appearances during that time. With Davis'

Davis later moved to coaching the offensive line before departing for Virginia Military Institute as its offensive coordinator. Davis spent four seasons at VMI, his final season as interim head coach, before returning to Georgia Southern.

The Keydets, running the triple option, led the Big South in rushing in all four of Davis' seasons. VMI established a conference-record 357.5 yards per game average in 2008, while the 2009 squad racked up 276.6 rushing yards per game. Both the 2008 and 2009 teams led the nation in rushing. JOHN LOOSE

ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
14TH SEASON
ITHACA, 1987

John Loose is in his second stint with the Army West Point football program and 14th season overall on the Banks of the Hudson.

At the end of the 2018 season Loose was promoted to defensive coordinator after serving as an assistant coach for the safeties.

He served as the interim DC during Army's 2018 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl victory over Houston, in which the Black Knights held the Cougars to just 14 points while registering a program record 10 sacks.

Loose is no stranger to the defensive coordinator position having been in that role at Lafayette College for 14 seasons, from 2000-13, and at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy for three years from 1989-91.

Since making his second stop to the Banks of the Hudson in 2014, Loose has been at the forefront of the Black Knights' safeties. The last two seasons he helped guide a secondary that ranked 21st and 14th in the nation against the pass.

In 2018, Loose mentored junior Jaylon McClinton and senior James Gibson to the fourth and fifth most tackles on the team, respectively. McClinton accumulated 54 tackles, including 37 solo shots. The Charlotte, N.C., native added four tackles for a loss of 17 yards, one sack for a loss of nine yards, and two interceptions for 11 yards. He also registered six pass breakups and two forced fumbles.

Gibson did much of the same this past season, earning 41 total tackles with 25 of those being unassisted. The Centreville, Va., native tallied four tackles for a loss of 21 yards and two sacks for a loss of 11 yards. Gibson posted two pass breakups and one forced fumble as well.

The Black Knights were also eighth nationally in total defense allowing just 295.5 yards per game, while their third down conversion percentage defense was fourth in the country at 26 percent.

In 2017, Gibson was teamed up with then senior Rhyan England in the backfield. Gibson was instrumental in Army's success with 45 total stops, including a game-saving one against Eastern Michigan on a two-point conversion that sealed the Black Knights' victory over the Eagles. England missed a few games due to injury that year but had 33 tackles and one fumble recovery. Max Regan, who saw significant time with England injured, made 33 stops along with a team-leading two interceptions and a fumble recovery. He returned one of the interceptions for a touchdown in the 49-12 victory over Rice.

During the 2016 season, Loose tutored senior Xavier Moss and England to 57 and 53 tackles, respectively. The pair also had two interceptions on the year. Moss led the team with five pass breakups and had an interception and a forced fumble in the win over Navy.

Loose was a key leader on the defensive staff that year as he helped guide Army to fourth in the nation in total defense and sixth against the pass. Army improved from six interceptions in 2015 to 17 in 2016.

In 2015, Loose mentored Moss in his transition to the secondary after spending two seasons on the offensive side of the ball. Moss was third on the team with 67 tackles along with one interception and five pass breakups. England had 64 tackles in 2015 under Loose with three tackles for loss, four pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

During the 2014 season, Loose coaches a young safeties group. Hayden Pierce, the lone senior starter, registered 45 tackles, despite missing a game. Pierce broke up three passes. Junior Luke Proulx made 28 tackles in eight games and classmate Michael McFadden competed in nine contests.

Under Loose's guidance, Lafayette consistently was among the top-25 defenses in the Football Championship Subdivision. In the 2013 season, Lafayette topped rival and 15th ranked Lehigh 50-28 and advanced to the national playoffs. During that season he also led his Lafayette defense to an upset of then unbeaten and No. 5-ranked Fordham, 27-14. In 2012, Lafayette featured four All-Patriot League selections, while the 2010 squad boasted three all-league choices.

The American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008, Loose and his wife, Marianne, started Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. The organization was founded in 2004 and raises money for pediatric brain tumor research. The Foundation has generated more than $2 million and blossomed into the largest one-day football clinic in the country.

Among the many all-stars Loose has coached is Andy Romans, a two-time Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year who helped the Leopards finish the 2008 season eighth in the nation in scoring defense (17.6 points per game), 10th in rushing defense (just 92.2 yards per game) and 20th in total defense at 303.2 yards per contest.

Lafayette boasted the top defense in the nation in 2007. Under Loose's leadership, Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.9 yards per game and ranked fourth in rushing defense at 85.7 yards per game.

The Leopards led the Patriot League in rushing defense in 2006 at 139 yards per contest, while the 2005 team ranked in the top 20 in five categories.

Linebacker Maurice Bennett helped pace the defense prior to his graduation in 2006, was a finalist for the Buchanan Award and was chosen as an All-Amer-

5TH SEASON

CENTRAL MISSOURI, 2011

Josh Christian-Young is in his fifth overall season with the Army West Point football program and third as an assistant coach.

During his first season as an assistant, Christian-Young worked with the defensive backs but shifted in 2017 to work with the cornerbacks. In 2019 he began coaching the safeties.

In 2018, with help from Christian-Young, the Black Knights earned back-to-back Commander In Chief's Trophy victories for the first time in program history. It was also the first time Army recorded consecutive 10-plus win seasons after breaking an Academy record with 11 wins.

During the last two years he helped guide a secondary that ranked 21st and 14th in the nation against the pass.

Last season he mentored Elijah Riley to the third-best tackler on the team with 55 tackles, including 7.5 tackles for a loss of 27 yards. The Port Jefferson, N.Y., native tallied a team-best 10 pass breakups and one sack for five yards. Cam Jones, Javhari Bourdeau and Mike Reynolds were a key part of his corners group as well, notching 32, 21 and 14 tackles, respectively. Jones added 3.5 tackles for loss and a sack for eight yards, while Bourdeau chipped in three tackles for a loss of 12 yards. Reynolds registered a team-best three interceptions as well, including a critical pick in Army's third-straight victory over rival Navy.

In 2017 Army captured the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

Cornerbacks Riley and Jaylon McClinton each had an interception on the season, while McClinton tallied 44 total tackles and Riley, who missed a portion of the season ended with 20 stops. He also coached Reynolds and Jones who saw significant time in 2017, and then rookie Bourdeau, who finished with 12 tackles and a forced fumble.

Christian-Young spent his first two seasons (2015 & 2016) as a quality control coach for the defense on Monken's staff.

Prior to his arrival at West Point, Christian-Young spent two seasons at Georgia Southern (2013 & 2014) as the cornerbacks coach. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., he helped the team post a 16-7 record and win the Sun Belt Conference title. He also assisted in all facets of special teams and had recruiting responsibilities.

Christian-Young began his coaching career at the University of Central Missouri where he coached cornerbacks and nickel backs as well as kickers and punters. In his three seasons, he helped the squad to a 25-11 mark and coached five all-conference players.

A strong safety at Central Missouri, Christian-Young earned a pair of degrees from the university, a bachelor's degree in history and a master's in sociology. He also collected a master's in high education administration while at Georgia Southern.

He and his wife Kristin reside at West Point.

KEVIN CORLESS

ASSISTANT COACH
INSIDE LINEBACKERS
6TH SEASON
N.W. MISSOURI STATE, 1982

Kevin Corless is in his sixth season with the Army West Point Football program as the inside linebackers coach.

Last season, with help from Corless, Army captured back-to-back Commander in Chief's Trophy titles for the first time in school history and earned three-straight bowl victories, which is a program record. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Corless coached James Nachtigal and Cole Christiansen for the second year in a row and the pair were the top two in total tackles. Nachtigal led the defensive unit with 97 tackles and had a team high 8.5 sacks, which were also a career best. He posted 16 tackles, 3.5 sacks and three forced fumbles in the bowl victory over Houston and was named to the AP and USA Today All-Bowl Team. Christiansen contributed with 77 tackles and a team best 12 tackles for loss in 13 games.

The Black Knights were also eighth nationally in total defense allowing just 295.5 yards per game, while their third down conversion percentage defense was fourth in the country at 26 percent.

He helped guide the 2017 Black Knights to their first 10-win season since 1996 and they won 10 games for only the second time in academy history. They captured the CIC Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won the Armed Forces Bowl with a victory over San Diego State.

Corless mentored Nachtigal and Christiansen into starting roles in 2017 after replacing Jeremy Timpf and Andrew King. Nachtigal finished with a team and career high 103 tackles, while Christiansen made 84 stops and recorded an interception.

In 2016, Corless had the chance to tutor the two team captains in Timpf and King. Timpf finished with 112 total tackles on the year, while King had 97 stops, including five sacks and 11 tackles for loss.

In 2015, under Corless' watch, King and Timpf led the team in tackles with 92 apiece. King was among the nation's leaders in tackles for loss with 16.5, which ranked 21st in the country.

In his first year at Army, Corless contributed to a defense that intercepted 11 passes and recovered four fumbles.

He was responsible for one of the youngest and most inexperienced position groups on the Black Knights.

Corless helped mentor Timpf, a first-year contributor who led the team with 117 tackles, 79 solo stops and 14.5 tackles for losses. Timpf ranked seventh nationally in solo tackles per game with 6.6, 23rd in the country in tackles per game at 9.8 and was honored on three postseason all-star teams.

He also assisted the development of King, a first-year starter who was third on the team with 63 tackles despite missing one game due to injury.

In addition, freshmen Tyler L'Hommedieu and Scott Washle along with sophomore Sean McBryde developed into consistent contributors.

Prior to Army, Corless spent two seasons at Georgia Southern. In 2012 he guided the linebackers before serving as co-defensive coordinator the following year in his last season at Georgia Southern.

The 2012 squad advanced to the FCS national semifinals and the 2013 squad beat Florida but was not eligible for postseason play as the Eagles made the jump to FBS.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, Corless spent nine years at Arkansas State. He was the co-defensive coordinator for the first seven years before handling the defense solely his last two seasons. In addition, he oversaw the linebackers and punt return units.

During his tenure at Arkansas State, the defense finished among the top-40 FBS programs in at least one defensive category each season.

Rivals.com named Corless the Sun Belt 'Defensive Coordinator of the Year' for the accomplishments of his 2009 Red Wolves' defense. That season capped a four-year run that saw the defense claim either first or second in each of the league's five major defensive statistical categories. ASU finished the 2008 season ranked in the top 20 for red zone defense and tackles for loss, but it was the upset of Texas A&M that earned national attention as linebacker Ben Owens intercepted an Aggie pass late in the game for the win.

In Corless' first season in 2002, ASU finished second in the Sun Belt Conference in five different categories, while the 2002 and 2004 squads posted national statistical rankings. The 2005 team won a Sun Belt championship and played in the New Orleans Bowl.

In his first year, Edwards helped Army capture Commander in Chief's Trophy titles for the second-straight year and earn a bowl victory for the third year in a row with a 70-14 win over Houston. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Edwards led a receivers group that caught 22 passes for 471 yards, which is an average of 21 yards per reception. Christian Hayes was the top receiver with 152 yards on the year, while Glen Coates led the crew with eight catches. Edwards also guided the group to be a huge part of the running game with blocking on the edge and helping Army gain over 4,000 yards in 2018 and average 312.5 yards per game.

Edwards came to West Point following three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Stony Brook. In 2017, the Seawolves finished 10-3, including 7-1 in Colonial Athletic Association play, and were named the ECAC Football Championship Subdivision Team of the Year. Stony Brook also finished 11th in the FCS national poll and made it to the second round of the FCS playoffs with a win over Lehigh before bowing out to top-ranked James Madison in the next round.

Edwards guided receiver Ray Bolden to First Team All-CAA honors in 2017. Bolden was a two-time first teamer in his career and a second team honoree in 2016. He pulled down 66 receptions for 780 yards and nine touchdowns this season to lead the Seawolves' receiving corps.

John Abercrombie finished his final season going a perfect 46-for-46 on PAT attempts (second-most all-time) and an impressive 8-for-9 on field goal chances for a .900 percentage. Fellow classmate Nick Schrage punted 21 times in 2018 for an average of 43.19 yards per kick. His longest boot of the year (67 yards) came in victory over Buffalo on Sept. 29, while he racked up 156 total yards in a win over Navy on Dec. 8. Kicker Jordan Weaver was second in the SoCon in field goals made in 2017 with 11 and second in scoring among kickers. Samford also led the SoCon in 2016 in kickoff coverage.

Prior to Samford, Krysl spent two seasons at Georgia Southern as the Director of Player Development, while also assisting head coach Willie Fritz with the Georgia Southern special teams units.

In 2015, Georgia Southern ended the season with a 9-4 overall record while also claiming a berth in the program's first ever bowl game that saw the Eagles defeat Bowling Green, 58-27, in the GoDaddy.com Bowl. Krysl was named special teams coordinator during the Eagles' bowl prep leading up to the game.

During that season the Eagles' punt return unit, and kickoff return unit finished number one in the Sun Belt Conference helping returner Derek Keaton earn All-Sun Belt honors as a returner for the second-straight season. In 2015 the Eagle's kickoff unit also finished first in the Sun Belt, while claiming the number one spot in FBS.

In 2014 Georgia Southern finished the season with a 9-3 overall record, while going 8-0 in the program's first season in the Sun Belt Conference, claiming the outright conference title. During that year Georgia Southern's kickoff return unit finished the regular season ranked 16th in the FBS.

Prior to joining the program at Georgia Southern, Krysl served as offensive line/tight ends coach at West Virginia State in 2013. Aside from his duties leading the offensive line and tight end units, Krysl also served as the program's strength and conditioning coordinator. While at West Virginia State, junior offensive tackle Ricardo Figueroa earned All-Mountain East honors after starting every game on the offensive line for the Yellow Jackets.

In 2012, Krysl worked as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Lexington High School in Lexington, Mo., under head coach Andy Lierman.

KEVIN LEWIS

ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSIVE LINE
1ST SEASON
VIRGINIA TECH, 2005

Kevin Lewis joined the Army West Point football staff in February 2019.

Lewis oversees the Black Knights' defensive line, a position group he's very familiar with. He came to the Banks of the Hudson with 12 years of experience coaching that unit, most recently a five-year stint at William and Mary.

During his time with the Tribe, Lewis coached all-conference selections during each of his five seasons and helped three former defensive linemen earn NFL opportunities.

Highlighting those who benefited from Lewis' tutelage was All-American defensive end Mike Reilly. Honored as the 2014 Colonial Athletic Association Defensive Player of the Year, Reilly was a Buchanan Award Watch List selection and signed a free agent contract with the Cleveland Browns following a tremendous senior campaign in which he ranked 13th nationally in sacks per game.

Also garnering NFL opportunities were a pair of defensive tackles in Jasper Coleman and Tyler Claytor. Coleman, a 2014 Chuck Boone Leadership Award Nominee, signed a free agent contract with the Houston Texans following his senior season, while Claytor earned a tryout with the Chicago Bears after his first-team all-conference selection in 2016.

Defensive tackle Isaiah Stephens continued the legacy of excellence by earning all-conference honors during the 2016-17 seasons, while junior defensive tackle Bill Murray was tabbed with the honor last season.

Lewis joined the W&M staff after serving as the defensive line coach at Dartmouth for the 2012 and 2013 seasons. In 2013, he helped the Big Green establish itself as one of the country's top defensive units as it ranked ninth nationally in scoring defense. During his first season at Dartmouth, the squad ranked 33rd nationally against the run, which represented an improvement from 104th the previous season.

Prior to his stint at Dartmouth, Lewis spent three seasons at the University of Richmond where he served as the defensive line assistant for two years before being promoted to the defensive line coach following the 2010 campaign. In addition to helping the Spiders post a 20-15 record, including an 11-2 mark in 2009 when Richmond reached the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals, he coached first-team All-American Martin Parker, who later went on to help the New York Giants win the Super Bowl.

A 2004 graduate of Virginia Tech with a degree in history, Lewis was a three-year starter for the Hokies and helped the program win the 2004 Atlantic Coast Conference Championship and appear in four bowl games. He went on to play professionally with the Hamburg Sea Devils in NFL Europe and was invited to training camp with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

A product of Varina High School in Richmond, Va., Lewis returned there to begin his coaching career with one of the top defensive line units in the state in August 2007. Several of his players went on to Division I and II careers, and he assisted with the players' college recruiting process as well as strength and conditioning.

Lewis is married to the former Miyah Jones and they reside at West Point.

Sean Saturnio is in his sixth season as a member of the Army West Point football coaching staff and enters his second year as the tight ends coach.

Last season, Saturnio helped Army capture Commander in Chief's Trophy titles for the second-straight year and earn a bowl victory for the third year in a row following a 70-14 win over Houston. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Saturnio tutored tight ends Quinten Parker and Zach Saum to become an integral part of the offensive line that helped Army rank second in the nation in rushing yards per game at 312.5. The group was instrumental in leading Army to the best third and fourth down conversion rate in college football. The Black Knights were also third in the nation with 47 rushing touchdowns.

In 2017, with help from Saturnio, the Black Knights brought home the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

He mentored punter Nick Schrage into a weapon for field position in 2017 as he was named a nominee for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter. Schrage improved his average by over seven yards per kick and had six boots over 50 yards after just one in 2016.

That year the Black Knights' Special Teams unit finished with their highest STE (Special Teams Efficiency) rating since 2010 according to the college and pro statistical analysis site Football Outsiders.

In 2016, Saturnio took over the special teams for the first time at West Point. He mentored Blake Wilson, Nick Schrage and J.D. Mote in the kicking game in their first full season. Rookie Malik McGue averaged eight yards per punt return and had a season-long 58-yard return at Wake Forest.

Saturnio spent his first two seasons coaching the fullbacks. In 2015, he mentored Aaron Kemper into Army's top rusher with 544 yards on the ground and three touchdowns. Kemper had a pair of 100-yard rushing games, including 140 yards against Eastern Michigan.

Under Saturnio, Matt Giachinta gained 286 yards and scored a touchdown as a senior. He was named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society and was a finalist for the Pop Warner Award.

In his first season at Army, Saturnio helped mentor 1,000-yard rusher Larry Dixon who topped the 3,000-yard mark for his career. Dixon was named to three postseason all-star teams and competed in the East-West Shrine Game. Saturnio also coached Giachinta, Kemper and Richie Smith, all key parts of a rushing attack that was third in the country at 296.5 yards per game.

He also oversaw the punters and helped Alex Tardieu average 39.3 yards on 44 punts. Tardieu pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line on 18 occasions and totaled six kicks of 50 yards or more.

Saturnio came to West Point following two seasons at Georgia Southern, where he coached the tight ends and assisted Brent Davis with the offensive line. In addition, he coached the punters and coordinated the punt return team.

Saturnio also had responsibility as the Director of Player Development in 2011 before assuming coaching responsibilities.

In 2012, Saturnio helped wide receiver/tight end Tyler Sumner collect honors on Phil Steels's 2012 All-Southern Conference squad.

A native of Hilo, Hawaii, Saturnio spent 12 seasons as the head coach at Waipahu High School, culminating with a semifinal appearance in the Oahu Interscholastic Association (OIA) White Conference playoffs in 2011.

Saturnio was an assistant for two seasons before taking over as head coach at Waipahu where his team qualified for the playoffs in six of 10 seasons at the helm. He was named the OIA Division I Coach of the Year for the Western Division in 2008 and OIA Division II Coach of the Year in 2004.

PATRICK TRESEY

ASSISTANT COACH

OFFENSIVE LINE

4TH SEASON

MOUNT ST. JOSEPH, 2011

Patrick Tresey begins his fourth year on the Army West Point football staff, his second as the offensive line coach.

Prior to being promoted to an assistant coach, Tresey spent two seasons as the offensive quality control coach.

Last season Tresey helped Army capture the Commander in Chief's Trophy title for the second-straight year and earn a bowl victory for the third year in a row following a 70-14 win over Houston. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Tresey had a hand in the development of a Black Knights offensive line that blocked for the second-best rushing team in the country at 312.5 rushing yards per game. That offense also ranked first in three different categories to close out the year: third down conversion percentage (.571), fourth down conversion percentage (.861), and time of possession (38:33). Tresey coached two players to Phil Steele All-Independent Team honors in 2018 after Bryce Holland and Jaxson Deaton were both honored.

Holland, a team captain, was named to the USA Today All-Bowl Team and an All-ECAC First Team recipient as well. Also garnering recognition last year was the entire offensive line, who was selected to the Sports Illustrated All-Bowl Team. The o-line blocked for an impressive Army running game that compiled an FBS bowl game record tying 70 points in its victory over Houston on Dec. 22. That same line helped the Army offense rush for over 4,000 yards on the year, which also ranked second in the country.

In 2017, with help from Tresey, the Black Knights captured the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history. Tresey was part of the offensive coaching staff that helped Army capture the rushing title, averaging 362.3 yards per game.

Tresey came to West Point after two years at Kenyon College. In 2015 he was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach and was promoted to that position after a year as the wide receiver coach and passing game coordinator.

The Lords were first in the North Coast Athletic Conference in sacks against and time of possession under Tresey as offensive coordinator. In his first year, he set up a passing game that allowed starting quarterback Jake Bates to set the Kenyon single-season record for completion percentage.

Prior to Kenyon, he spent two seasons at nearby Ashland University, where he worked with the Eagles' offense as the tight ends coach. In those two seasons, the Eagles posted a combined 16-6 record and averaged over 35 points and 417 yards per game.

After to his stint at Ashland, Tresey spent a season as the offensive graduate assistant coach at UCLA. In that role he assisted in preparation of the weekly game plan, organized and coached the defensive scout team, prepared and reviewed film with the offensive staff, updated and maintained the offensive playbook, and directed tight end meetings during bowl practice.

The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and capped the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Ware tutored quarterback Kelvin Hopkins Jr. into Army's first-ever signal-caller to run and pass for 1,000 yards in a single-season. Hopkins finished with four 100-yard rushing games including 170 yards in the victory over Houston in the Armed Forces Bowl. Hopkins was named the MVP of the Army-Navy Game and the bowl game as well. Ware also mentored Cam Thomas, who filled in for Hopkins against Miami (OH) in 2018 and ran for 137 yards in his first career start.

With help from Ware, Army ranked second in the nation in rushing yards per game at 312.5. The quarterback group was essential in leading Army to the best third and fourth down conversion rate in college football. The Black Knights were also third in the nation with 47 rushing touchdowns.

In 2017, with help from Ware, Army captured the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history.

During that year Ware saw quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw break the single-season service-academy rushing record with 1,746 yards. The yardage was high enough for fifth in the country at the end of the year. Bradshaw finished sixth in the nation with 134.3 rushing yards per contest. He averaged an impressive 7.21 yards per carry, which was also in the top 10 nationally at eighth spot.

Hopkins Jr. made an impact at the quarterback position in 2017 as well, leading the Black Knights on a game-tying scoring drive in the final minutes against Temple to force overtime and allow Army to win and become bowl eligible.

Ware coached Bradshaw to 824 yards rushing and over 700 yards passing in his junior season. Bradshaw orchestrated an 80-yard game-winning drive against Navy in the fourth quarter to give Army its first win since 2001. Bradshaw also ran for 129 yards against North Texas in the Heart of Dallas Bowl, which was a bowl record and the second-most rushing yards by a quarterback in the history of the Cotton Bowl Stadium.

In 2015, Ware tutored three different quarterbacks that started a game for the Black Knights. Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their Army debuts in 2015 and both ran and threw for 100 yards in their first start as a Black Knight. A.J. Schurr filled in against Eastern Michigan and led Army to its best offensive output in its history with over 600 yards of offense.

In his first season at Army West Point, Ware help lead a rushing offense that ranked fifth in the country at 296.5 yards per contest. Under Ware's tutelage, Angel Santiago and Schurr combined for 13 rushing touchdowns. Santiago was second on the squad with 814 rushing yards, while Schurr gained 320. The duo combined to complete 47 of 98 passes with a touchdown pass apiece.

Ware came to West Point from Georgia Southern where he was assistant head coach in 2012, his eighth season on the Eagles' staff. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., Ware was responsible for coaching the quarterbacks.

During the 2013 campaign, Ware mentored quarterback Jerick McKinnon to a tremendous season and an invitation to a showcase bowl event. McKinnon, despite playing in only 10 games, led the team in rushing attempts (161), rushing yards (1,050) and touchdowns (12). He averaged 105 yards per contest and 6.5 yards per carry and was invited to the prestigious Senior Bowl. He connected on 8-of-17 passes for 171 yards with four touchdowns and just one interception.

McKinnon finished third all-time on the Georgia Southern career rushing list with 3,899 yards. Backup quarterback Kevin Ellison was second on the squad with 127 rushing attempts for 886 yards. He completed 41-of-79 passes for 756 yards and two scores.

Ware helped Georgia Southern to three-straight trips to the national semifinals and an upset win at Florida.

Ware served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 and helped Georgia Southern lead the FCS in rushing offense all four years. In his first season, Ware developed first-year starter Chaz Williams into an Associated Press All-America selection and finalist for the prestigious Walter Payton Award. From his quarterback position, Williams ran for 1,422 yards and 27 touchdowns while being named conference player of the year. Fullback Jermaine Austin, another first-year starter, rushed for 1,416 yards and was named conference rookie of the year.

The following season, Georgia Southern averaged 335.6 rushing yards per game and led the nation as Austin earned Player of the Year and All-America honors.

In 2004, Georgia Southern again led the country in rushing at 369.9 yards per contest and ranked third nationally in yards per game.

Prior to his work with Georgia Southern, Ware coached at Navy for four seasons. While in Annapolis, Md., Ware guided Brian Madden, who nearly rushed for and passed for 1,000 yards with 905 yards on the ground and 902 through the air.

Ware spent 16 seasons at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) where he was a player, assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

TUCKER WAUGH

ASSISTANT COACH
SLOT BACKS
17TH SEASON
DePAUW, 1993

Tucker Waugh is in his 17th overall season as a member of the Army West Point football coaching staff. After serving previously as the wide receivers coach from 2000-2004, Waugh departed for Stanford for only two seasons before returning for his second stint on the Banks of the Hudson in 2007. Since coming back, he has coached the running backs, wide receivers and most recently took over the reins of the slotbacks. Waugh also serves as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top rushing teams since 2010, holding a top-five ranking on seven different occasions.

Last season, with help from Waugh, the Black Knights earned back-to-back Commander In Chief's Trophy victories for the first time in program history. It was also the first time Army recorded consecutive 10-plus win seasons after breaking an Academy record with 11 wins.

Waugh helped teach slotbacks Kell Walker and Jordan Asberry to an impressive 2018 season. Walker was fifth on the team in rushing with 320 yards on 67 attempts. He posted a career-long 51-yard run against rival Navy on Dec. 8, where he finished with 109 total yards in the game. Asberry became Army's leading receiver during the year. The senior finished with 219 yards on 11 catches with four touchdowns. In the Black Knights' triumph over Houston in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Asberry ran for a season-best 63 yards in five carries to go along with his 22 yards receiving on just two grabs.

In 2017, Waugh and the Black Knights brought home the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in Academy history at that time.

The Cadets claimed the NCAA rushing title, averaging 362.3 yards per game and scored 50 rushing touchdowns to finish second in the nation and set a new program record. Army also led the country in total rushing yards with 4,710 on the year.

Waugh's slotback corps, led by Walker, finished with a career high 629 rushing yards and six touchdowns. He averaged 7.3 yards per carry during the 2017 season, which was the best average on the team. Walker recorded two 100-yard rushing games, including a career best 129 and three scores in a 42-19 win at Rice. Walker was also Army's top receiver with 111 yards on the season.

In 2016, Army was ranked second in the nation in rushing offense and was helped by slotbacks Asberry, Walker and Tyler Campbell. Asberry led the group with 421 yards and five touchdowns. Walker came on strong at the end of the year and proved to be pivotal in wins over Navy and North Texas at the Heart of Dallas Bowl. Campbell was steady all season with 326 yards on the ground and two scores.

In 2015, he guided then sophomore John Trainor to an average of 8.7 yards per carry and two rushing touchdowns. Trainor was also Army's top receiver out of the backfield with eight catches for 176 yards and a touchdown. Then junior Joe Walker racked up 203 yards on the ground on 27 carries that season as well.

Waugh tutored a pair of rookies in Asberry and Campbell that made significant contributions throughout the 2015 season. Asberry had 30 carries for 213 yards, while Campbell had 118 yards on 17 rushes, including a 29-yard touchdown run in the Army-Navy Game.

In 2013, Army racked up 3,950 yards rushing and 4,678 yards of total offense. Waugh mentored freshman wide receiver Xavier Moss, who established an Army rookie record with 35 receptions. The total shattered the previous mark of 20 set by Jeremy Trimble in 2004, which was also set under Waugh's guidance. Moss led the team with an Army freshman record of 463 receiving yards.

Waugh has also mentored two-time 1,000-yard rusher Raymond Maples, one of just three players to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark twice in their career, and was part of the 2010 staff that led Army to a victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

During 2008, Waugh's first season coaching running backs in Army's triple-option system, he guided fullback Collin Mooney to a record-breaking season of 1,339 yards. Mooney had just 22 rushing yards prior to establishing the Academy single-season record.

Waugh was a member of Bobby Ross' coaching staff and then departed the Academy to work with head coach Walt Harris at Stanford in 2005.

At Stanford, Waugh coached NFL All-Pro Richard Sherman to Freshman All-America honors as a wide receiver with the Cardinal. He had 34 catches for 581 yards during the 2006 season.

In 2008, Waugh was recognized as one of the up-and-coming assistants in the nation. He was chosen to attend the NCAA Expert Coaches Forum in Dallas, Texas. The Forum is designed to improve and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in head football coaching positions at the intercollegiate level. In 2009, Rivals.com named Waugh one of its top 10 recruiters among all non-Bowl Championship Series schools.

When Waugh first arrived at Army, he inherited a group of receivers that had caught a total of 14 career passes. Over the next three years, his Black Knight wideouts registered 322 receptions. During that time, he oversaw the development of Aaron Alexander, who graduated in 2005 ranking second on Army's career charts for both receptions and receiving yards. Waugh mentored Alexander to an Academy-record 64 catches in 2003. His 861 receiving yards that season ranked third on the Army ledger at that time.

Prior to arriving at West Point, Waugh coached for five seasons at Illinois State (1995-99). He worked with the Redbirds' outside linebackers in 1995, running backs in 1996 and wide receivers his final three years. He mentored an All-Gateway Conference selection during each of his three seasons as receivers coach, with Marquis Mosely earning recognition in 1997 and Ricky Garrett copping laurels in both 1998 and 1999.

Waugh helped to establish the Redbirds' passing at-

MATT DRINKALL

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH
1ST SEASON
COLLEGE OF MOUNT ST. JOSEPH, 2011

Matt Drinkall was added to the Army West Point football staff in February 2019. He currently serves as the offensive quality control coach.

He came to the Banks of the Hudson after a very successful five-year stint as the head coach at Kansas Wesleyan where the Coyotes were 42-17, including a 37-12 slate against KCAC opponents. His last four teams won 40 games (40-8) during the best four-year run in school history. He departed holding the fourth-highest win total in program history as well.

The culmination of that was in 2018 when Wesleyan won its first conference championship since 2002 after going 10-0 and advancing to the semifinals of the NAIA National Championship. The Coyotes posted a program-best 13-1 record and shattered virtually every school and numerous KCAC and NAIA records in the process during their historic season.

In 2017, the Coyotes continued their renewed success under Drinkall by posting an 8-3 overall mark and a 7-2 record in the KCAC. He coached a pair of AFCA and Associated Press NAIA All-Americans in 2017 in Trenton Poe-Evans and Garrett Updegraff. Wesleyan's offense ranked No. 6 in the NAIA in sacks allowed, No. 20 in scoring offense, and No. 24 in total offense. Senior Tyler Welch led the NAIA in kickoff return yards, Updegraff ranked third in the NAIA in tackles per game and Poe-Evans led all NAIA tight ends in receiving yards, touchdowns, receptions and receptions per game.

In 2016, the Coyotes went 9-2 overall and 7-2 in conference play, while also recording back-to-back nine-win seasons for the first time in school history. Wesleyan reached the No. 10 spot in the NAIA Top 25 poll during the season, matching the highest-ever ranking for the Coyotes since the NAIA began recording weekly poll rankings in 1999. The team enjoyed a 5-0 record at Bissell Field at the Graves Family Sports Complex, remaining unbeaten in the facility since it opened in 2015.

The Coyotes enjoyed their best season in school history at that time in 2015 after tallying a program record ten wins and earning a berth in the NAIA Football Championship Series for the first time since 2002. Wesleyan ranked fifth in the NAIA in total offense and pass offense per game and was seventh in the country in scoring. Jake Curran, who was the KCAC Player of the Year, ranked third in the NAIA in total offense and fourth in the country in total offense.

During his first season in 2014, the Coyotes went 2-9 overall and 2-7 in the KCAC. Six players were named All-KCAC and senior defensive lineman Daniel Moss was selected as a Capital One Academic All-America by CoSIDA.

Before coming to Kansas Wesleyan, Drinkall served as offensive coordinator at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa, for his last two seasons of a six-year stint.

While at St. Ambrose, Drinkall directed the Fighting Bees' offense that ranked No. 4 in the NAIA in scoring offense (44.2 points per game), total offense (505.9 yards per game), passing offense (326.3 yards per game) in 2013, while finishing 7-4 overall and 5-1 in the Mid-States Football Association Midwest League. He also helped Saint Ambrose reach the NAIA Football Championship Series three times (2008, 2012 and 2013). Under his leadership, quarterback Eric Williamson was named the two-time MSFA Conference Player of the Year and set several school records in the process. Drinkall was named the MSFA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2011 in a conference that had produced the last three NAIA National Champions.

Drinkall began his career at St. Ambrose in 2008 and steadily moved through the offensive coaching ranks, starting with the wide receivers in 2009 before moving to offensive line in 2010. He was then elevated to offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the Bees in 2012.

Before St. Ambrose, he spent two seasons at Western Illinois as the tight ends coach under Don Patterson. While there he helped develop the Leathernecks into one of the top rushing offenses in the country at the time.

He coached three seasons at his alma mater, Bettendorf (Iowa) High School, before arriving at Western Illinois, where he coached defensive backs and wide receivers, including former Indianapolis Colts linebacker Pat Angerer.

Drinkall also served as a student-coach at the University of Iowa for three years after suffering a career ending injury as a wide receiver for the Hawkeyes.

Drinkall holds a bachelor of science degree from Western Illinois – Quad Cities in Kinesiology (2005) and a master of science degree in recreation administration (2007) from Western Illinois. Drinkall attended Bettendorf High School where he became one of only two players in program history to have compiled 1000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving.

He and his wife Kim currently reside at West Point.

Prior to Georgia Tech, Lyster spent one season at Monmouth University as a defensive assistant. SCOTT SWANSON

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
23RD SEASON
WAKE FOREST, 1992

An important cog in the physical development of Army's varsity athletes, Scott Swanson is in his 23rd year at Army West Point. He serves as an Assistant Athletic Director/Director of Strength and Conditioning.

A 1992 graduate of Wake Forest University, Swanson spent the 1995 and 1996 football campaigns as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army before departing to serve in the same capacity at Stanford University. He returned one year later in 1998 to take over the Black Knights' head job.

Since his return to the Academy, Army has captured countless league championships and sent numerous teams to postseason competition, while Black Knight athletes have secured a host of All-America certificates since 1998.

Swanson oversees the unique task of training cadet-athletes at West Point. He directs the training of 1,000 athletes, operates three weight rooms and manages five off-site facilities throughout the country during summer assignments.

The Parkersburg, W.Va., native was instrumental in the development of Army's vast strength development center housed in the Kimsey Athletic Center, which opened in April 2003. The Kimsey Athletic Center houses coaches' offices, spacious locker rooms, equipment rooms, an athletic training area, meeting space and an athletic hall of fame area. But perhaps the crown jewel of the building is its 20,000-square-foot strength development center that is under Swanson's direction.

This area features state-of-the-art equipment to accentuate the overall development of a host of Army athletes, but most notably serves football.

His main duty is overseeing the total strength and conditioning program for Army's 28 intercollegiate sports programs and directly oversees men's basketball and lacrosse.

Swanson is a Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2005. He is also a CGFI, CrossFit Level 1 instructor and member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Swanson resides at West Point with his son, Thor.

ARMY AND NAVY WILL MEET FOR THE 120TH TIME ON DECEMBER 14 IN PHILADELPHIA

- The storied Army-Navy rivalry will enjoy its 120th edition this season when the Black Knights and Midshipmen play on Dec. 14 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia. Only nine Division I-A rivalries have featured more games than the Army-Navy series.
- This revered series began when Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepted a "challenge" from Naval Academy Midshipmen for a football game against the Cadets. That first contest was held on "The Plain" at West Point on Nov. 29, 1890. The more experienced Mids, who had been playing organized football since 1879, defeated the Cadets 24-0.
- Eighty-eight of the 119 Army-Navy games have been played within Philadelphia city limits. The 2016 installment of the game in Baltimore, Md., marked only the 10th time the Army-Navy Classic was played outside Philadelphia since 1945. The 1983 game was played at the Rose Bowl, while the 1989, 1993, 1997 and 2001 confrontations took place at Giants Stadium. M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore played host to the classic in 2000, 2007 and 2014. The 2012 game at FedEx Field was the first to be hosted by the Washington, D.C. area.
- There has been 15 different sites since the birth of the series in 1890. Those sites follow: West Point (3), Annapolis (3), Palmer Stadium (1), Franklin Field (18), Polo Grounds (9), Baltimore Stadium (2), Soldier Field (1), Yankee Stadium (2), Municipal/John F. Kennedy Stadium (41), Veterans Stadium (17), Rose Bowl (1), Giants Stadium (4), M&T Bank Stadium (4), Lincoln Financial Field (12) and FedEx Field (1).
- The Army-Navy series has been tied on 13 occasions (five times since 1979). The latest tie came following Navy's victory in 2004. The Mids' win in 2005 gave Navy its first edge in the series since 1993. Until winning in 1980 to break a 37-37-6 stalemate, Navy had not led in the series standing since 1921, after just the 24th meeting between the academies.
- Further evidence of the rivalry's competitive nature: only 366 points (3.1 ppg) separate the teams through the Classic's initial 119 pairings. Navy has scored 1,874 points (15.7), while Army has recorded 1,508 points (12.7).
- CBS Sports reaffirmed its commitment to broadcasting the storied rivalry to a national audience with a new agreement until 2028. The Army-Navy Game presented by USAA will be the only college football game contested on the second Saturday in December, a departure from its recent history of being played a week earlier opposite several conference championship contests.
- The United States Military Academy and United States Naval Academy announced in July 2009 that financial services leader USAA signed a 10-year agreement to be the presenting sponsor of the annual Army-Navy football game. USAA is among the premier providers of banking products, insurance, investments, and financial planning to current and former members of the U.S. military and their families – including the Cadets and Midshipmen from the two academies.

Service academy supremacy is at stake on the gridiron each season when Army, Navy and Air Force battle in a round-robin schedule for the Commander in Chief's Trophy.

This year, the Trophy enters its 48th season as the pre-eminent indicator of football bragging rights among the three major service academies.

Army's most recent Commander in Chief's Trophy title dates back to last season, when the Black Knights assured that the Trophy would return to its original home by defeating arch-rival Navy 17-10 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

To help commemorate the Trophy's 25th birthday, President Bill Clinton was on hand at "The Vet" to present the Black Knights with the glimmering silver Trophy following their come-from-behind victory. It marked the first time that a standing President attended an Army-Navy clash since Gerald Ford looked on in 1974 to see Navy defeat Army 19-0.

Former President George W. Bush witnessed the Army-Navy game in person three times during his two terms in office, attending the classic in 2001, 2004 and 2008.

In 2018, President Donald J. Trump was on hand for the 119th installment of the Army-Navy game played at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

Prior to 1996, Army had last acquired sole possession of the Trophy in 1988. In 1993, each team split its two academy games, marking only the fourth time that all three teams shared possession of the Trophy.

Army captured the inaugural Commander in Chief's Trophy by defeating Air Force, 17-14, and Navy, 23-15, in 1972.

The Trophy has resided at West Point in 1972, 1977, 1984, 1986, 1988, 1996, 2017 and 2018.

Navy, which ruled the 1970s, has acquired sole ownership of the trophy nine times since 1981. The Mids captured the hardware seven straight seasons from 2003-09 before Air Force claimed the trophy in 2010, 2011 and won it in 2014, after Navy won two straight.

The Trophy is named in honor of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the armed forces. The three-sided structure, which weighs 170 pounds and stands 2 1/2 feet tall, is engraved with the seal of each academy and displays a reproduction of each school's mascot. The year in which the Trophy is won is engraved on the appropriate academy's side.

The idea for the establishment of an interservice football trophy originated with the late Gen. George B. Simler, commander of the Air Training Command and a former Air Force Academy athletic director. The 1972 season was seen as an appropriate time to consider such an idea since it also marked the first season of the round-robin competition among the three teams.

Simler proposed the idea to the USAFA Association of Graduates early in 1972. The Association, in turn, proposed the project to the alumni associations at West Point and Annapolis as suitable for joint sponsorship by the three institutions. Following formal adoption of the project, designs for the Trophy were sought from manufacturers.

After Army's inaugural title in 1972, Navy captured possession of the Trophy eight of the following nine years before Air Force first staked claim to the honor in 1982. The Trophy remained in the Falcons' possession the following season when they swept the Black Knights and Midshipmen.

Army recaptured the Trophy in 1984, its first outright title since 1977.

The Black Knights begin the quest for this year's CIC title on Nov. 2 when they take on Air Force in Colorado. Army will then square off against Navy on Dec. 14 in Philadelphia.

ARMY DROPS OPENER AT DUKE

DURHAM, N.C. – The Army West Point football team dropped its season opener at Duke, 34-14.

Junior quarterback Kelvin Hopkins Jr. made his first career start and threw for 197 yards and a touchdown while going 10-of-18 through the air. Sophomore Camden Harrison had one of the highlights on the night with a 45-yard touchdown reception.

Senior Calen Holt was Army's leading rusher with 54 yards, while Hopkins had the lone rushing score for the Black Knights in the loss. Army gained a total of 365 yards and had more passing yards (197) than rushing yards (168) for the first time since the 2015 Army-Navy Game.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Army started the season on a Friday night for the fourth year in a row and is 2-2 in those games.
- Duke leads the all-time series at 14-11-3.
- The Black Knights had four players that made their first career start.
- Army threw for over 100 yards in a game for the first time since Oct. 29, 2016 at Wake Forest.
- This was Hopkins Jr.'s first career start at quarterback.
- Harrison caught his first career touchdown pass with a 45-yard connection with Hopkins Jr.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Black Knights stopped the Blue Devils on their opening drive of the game, but turned the ball over to the home side after fumbling two plays into their first offensive possession. Duke converted on a 25-yard field goal a couple plays later to break the scoreless deadlock at 3-0.
- The Blue Devils added to their lead with a 12-yard scamper early in the second quarter to create a 10-0 gap between the teams. Duke used a nine-play, 80-yard drive that ate up only 3:37 off the clock.
- After the Cadets turned the ball over for the second time in the game at the Duke 32 midway through the period, the Blue Devils capitalized on a pass play of 61 yards to get themselves into scoring position. On the next snap, Duke crossed the goal line for a one-yard touchdown rush by Daniel Jones making it a 17-0 ballgame.
- James Gibson came up with a huge defensive play when he stopped the Duke offense with a strip sack three minutes into the second half. Wunmi Oyetuga immediately fell on the ball to recover it for the visitors. Starting the drive from their own 45, the Cadets then marched down the field and converted on an 11-play, 55-yard drive for their first score of the game. Kelvin Hopkins Jr. registered his first touchdown of the season to pull Army within 17-7.
- The Blue Devils quickly answered with a seven-play, 68-yard drive of their own to extend the lead back to a 17-point advantage at 24-7.
- And back-and-forth we went as Army responded with a score of its own, thanks in part to a Hopkins Jr.-Harrison connection of 45 yards. It marked Army's first touchdown reception since Oct. 21, 2017, and cut the deficit to 24-14.
- Unfortunately, the home side used two big pass plays during its next possession to break free for another score, taking a 31-14 lead with 13:27 remaining in the game.
- Duke then capitalized on a field goal block to increase its lead to 34-14 with a field goal from Collin Wareham from 30 yards out.

HOME STREAK STILL ALIVE AFTER THRILLER VS. HAWAII

WEST POINT, N.Y. – In a thrilling game that came down to the wire, it was the Army West Point football team delivering a huge fourth-quarter stop to take down undefeated Hawai'i, 28-21, at Michie Stadium.

The Black Knights ended the Rainbow Warriors' unbeaten streak, which stood at three-straight games heading into Saturday's contest. With the win, Army shifts to 2-1 on the year.

Kelvin Hopkins Jr. led all Army ball carriers with 110 yards and a pair of scores on 20 carries. The Charlotte, N.C., native also added 162 yards in the air on six completions. He was backed by the 70-yard rushing game of Darnell Woolfolk and a 62-yard rushing performance by Connor Slomka. Both rushers found their way into the end zone once opposite the Rainbow Warriors.

Defensively, Kenneth Brinson led the charge with a team-best six tackles and two sacks for a loss of eight yards. James Nachtigal also helped the Black Knights' defensive corps with five tackles and one sack for a loss of nine yards.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- The Black Knights are now undefeated at home in their last nine contests, which is the longest span since winning 14 straight from 1984-86.
- Hopkins was the first Army quarterback to throw and run for 100 yards in a single game since Chris Carter did so on Nov. 21, 2015 against Rutgers.
- Darnell Woolfolk scored his 26th career touchdown and tied Doc Blanchard and Larry Dixon for eighth in all-time career scores.
- The Black Knights went over 100 yards passing for the second time this season.
- Army compiled more than 40 minutes of possession for the second-straight week.
- Brinson recorded a total of two sacks in the game, which shifts him into sole possession of seventh place all-time with 10.5 sacks.
- The Cadets held Hawai'i's high-powered offense, which came into the game averaging 48.3 points, to just 21 on Saturday.
- Army is now 20-2 when leading after three quarters under Coach Monken.
- It is also the Black Knights' first win in the series and they are 1-1 all-time against Hawai'i at West Point.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Rainbow Warriors wasted little time utilizing their run-n-shoot offense as they took the opening drive down the field and into the end zone in just five plays for the early 7-0 edge. Hawai'i completed three passes during that time, including a 50-yard pickup by Cedric Byrd.
- After a big fourth down sack by Brinson, the Black Knights knotted things up using a five-play drive of their own to pull even at 7-7. A highlight of that march was a Hopkins-Calen Holt connection for 63 yards that put the Cadets in the red zone at the 1-yard line.
- The Army defense forced a 3-and-out, giving the ball back to the Black Knights' offense with 5:15 remaining in the first quarter. Starting from their own 36, the Cadets marched 64 yards down the field on 14 rushes and scored on a Hopkins 1-yard rush to give the home side the lead at 14-7.
- Hawai'i countered quickly and leaned heavily on the hot hand of its quarterback, Cole McDonald. He connected on all six of his pass attempts for 53 yards before John Ursua took the direct snap and found his way into the end zone on a 1-yard rush.
- The Black Knights responded with a quick score of their own and needed just 5:32 to re-

- With the ball back with the Black Knights and 8:42 left to play, Army began to drive down the field. An 11-yard drive that was highlighted by a 29-yard pass from Hopkins to Coates milked 5:42 off the clock, but resulted in a turnover on downs after the Cadets could not convert on a 4th-and-1 on the Hawai'i 28.

HOW IT HAPPENED

ARMY HANDS BUFFALO FIRST LOSS

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Buffalo got out to a quick lead, but the Army West Point football team scored a decisive 42-13 victory to hand the Bulls their first loss of the season.

Army's defense allowed only six points after the opening drive to shut down a Buffalo offense that hadn't scored less than 35 points in a game this season.

Kelvin Hopkins Jr. led the Army offense with 89 rushing yards and 91 through the air to go with a passing touchdown. Jordan Asberry hauled in a 25-yard touchdown pass, while Darnell Woolfolk, Connor Slomka, Calen Holt and Luke Langdon all found the end zone in the win. The Cadets converted on three third down situations during the 11-play drive. Holt finished things off with a five-yard scamper for his third career score.
- Army then forced a 3-and-out just as the closing seconds ticked off the first quarter clock. As the second period got underway, the Black Knights proceeded to put together a 12-play, 77-yard drive to pull in front 14-7. Hopkins Jr. had five of those 12 plays and picked up 22 yards. Slomka finally found paydirt from three yards out for his fourth-straight game with a score.
- During the ensuing drive, the Bulls drove the ball down to the Army 11 before being forced to kick a field goal. Buffalo sent Adam Mitcheson out for the 28-yard attempt, but it was blocked by Oyetuga. Riley then picked up the loose ball and returned it 80 yards for the score, handing the Black Knights a 21-7 advantage.
- After forcing the Cadets to a quick 3-and-out to start the second half, Buffalo pulled within eight, 21-13, following a 12-play, 87-yard drive. - Army finishes the road portion of its schedule with a 2-2 record with two consecutive wins away from West Point.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- After forcing a quick 3-and-out, the Black Knights worked the ball to the EMU 6-yard line on their first offensive drive of the game. However, the Eagles' defense kept the Cadets out of end zone and Army was held to a 24-yard field goal from the foot of Abercrombie.
- Army increased its advantage to 6-0 following another Abercrombie field goal make, this time from 23-yards out. That score capped a 12-play, 74-yard drive that ate up 6:43 off of the clock and spanned into the second quarter.
- The Black Knights continued their field goal trend with their third kick in as many drives. Abercrombie drilled one through the uprights from the 27-yard line to hand the visitor's a 9-0 lead with 2:25 remaining in the half.
- The Cadets then forced a 3-and-out and, after an Eagles' punt, took over the ball at their own 38-yard line with 1:35 left to play. A few plays later the Black Knights found paydirt when Asberry scampered in from three-yards out. A highlight of the five-play, 62-yard drive was a Hopkins Jr. rush on third down that went for 13 yards.
- On their first drive of the second half the Eagles needed just six plays to find the end zone. Wiegiers and Gunnar Oakes connected on a 14-yard pickup to set their squad up in prime scoring position. Despite a loss of two yards on the ensuing play, Wiegiers found Mathew Sexton for the touchdown one play later. Following a successful two-point conversion try, EMU was within eight, 16-8, with 11:20 remaining in the third quarter.
- The home side continued to chip away at the lead and cut Army's advantage down to 16-14 with a 58-yard touchdown dash. The Eagles went for two in hopes to even the score, but failed and the Black Knights remained up by two. EMU needed just three plays to gain 64 yards on the scoring drive.

- Army finally got itself back on track after failing to convert any points on its first two drives of the second half. Hopkins and Asberry teamed up twice on the touchdown scoring drive with the first coming on a 3rd-and-7. Hopkins found the senior for 31 yards to place the ball at the EMU 41. A few plays later, Hopkins again connected with Asberry for a 26-yard reception and score to increase the Army lead to nine, 23-14.
- During the next EMU drive, James Nachtigal made a great defensive play when he punched the ball out of Wiegiers' arms, forcing a fumble. Chandler Ramirez was luckily nearby to fall on the loose ball and give possession back to the Black Knights at the EMU 47 yard line. The following drive took 10 plays, but the Cadets worked their way down to the EMU 2-yard line. Opting to go for it on 4th-and-goal, Hopkins found Kell Walker wide open in the end zone to make it a 30-14 game with 11:26 left to play.
- The Eagles answered with Blake Banham powering in a score from one yard out and EMU got the two-point conversion to cut Army's lead to, eight, 30-22, with seven minutes on the clock.
- Darnell Woolfolk put the game away in the final quarter of action with his eighth rushing touchdown of the season and 31st of his career, securing a 37-22 victory for the Black Knights.

ARMY RETAINS COMMANDER IN CHIEF'S TROPHY

WEST POINT, N.Y. – For the second-straight season the Army West Point football team earned prime hardware to show off after it retained the Commander In Chief's Trophy following a 17-14 victory over Air Force.

The Falcons had already defeated Navy earlier in the year and a win from them on Saturday would have sent the 170-plus pound trophy back to Colorado. Fortunately, the Cadets ended any thought of that happening when they held off a late rally by their service-academy foe.

With the win, Army will at least retain the trophy for another year as the worst all three academies can now do is win one game each. In the case of a three-way tie, the previous year's winner retains the trophy. The Black Knights will have a chance to win the trophy outright when they face off against arch-rival Navy in the Army-Navy Game, presented by USAA on Dec. 8.

That triumph marked the first time in program history Army will have the trophy at West Point in back-to-back seasons. The win also handed the Black Knights their second-straight victory over Air Force since they claimed three consecutive from 1976-78.

Darnell Woolfolk rushed for a team-high 117 yards on 21 carries. The senior added his 32nd career score when he punched one in from one-yard out in the first quarter.

Kelvin Hopkins Jr. chipped in 75 yards rushing and one touchdown, while finishing 3-of-5 in the passing game. Jordan Asberry was his main target gathering 35 yards on two receptions.

Senior James Nachtigal led the defense with 11 tackles, including eight solo shots. This was the first time this season the Fort Atkinson, Wis., native registered double-digit tackles.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Army has won 11 games in a row at home, which is the longest streak since the Black Knights won 14 straight from 1984 to 1986.
- The Cadets opened the game with a drive of a season-high 21 plays and over 10 minutes of possession time.
- The Black Knights were 3-for-3 on fourth downs and are now 29-for-32 on the season.
- Woolfolk scored his ninth touchdown this year and remains sixth all-time in career rushing touchdowns.
- Hopkins ran for a touchdown in the second quarter for his eighth rushing score in 2018.
- Woolfolk broke free for a career-long 52-yard scamper in the second quarter to set up a Hopkins score.
- Woolfolk ran for over 100 yards for the first time this season and fifth time in his career.
- Army has now shut out opponents in the first half three times this season.
- The Black Knights held an opponent under 150 yards rushing for seventh time this year.
- Mike Reynolds recorded Army's third interception of the season in the second quarter and it was the second of the senior's career.
- Abercrombie was 1-for-1 on field goals after hitting a 30-yarder in the fourth quarter.
- He has also now connected on field goals in four-straight games and is 6-for-6 this season.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Black Knights took the opening drive of the game 75 yards to take an early 7-0 advantage after Woolfolk found paydirt. That drive was filled up with an impressive 21 plays and ate up a season-high 13:03 off the game clock. The senior racked up nine of those 21 plays during the drive for 32 yards.
- Midway through the second period Army added to its lead when Hopkins crossed into the end zone from six-yards out. That drive was highlighted by a 52-yard run by Woolfolk that put the Black Knights into the redzone.
- Neither team was able to muster anything throughout much of the third period until Air Force finally got on the scoreboard with a late touchdown. DJ Hammond III rushed in from the 1-yard line to cut into Army's lead at 14-6. A missed extra point kept the Falcons from pulling to within seven with 54 ticks remaining.

- On the ensuing drive the Black Knights went 62 yards on 13 plays but had to settle for a 30-yard boot from Abercrombie. That kick made it a two-score game at 17-6 with just 8:35 left to play.
- Air Force used 3:16 of that remaining time to drive 75 yards to again cut the advantage to 17-14 after a Joseph Saucier score and two-point conversion.
- The Falcons then forced the Cadets to punt after five plays handing them the ball back with a little over three minutes to play. Air Force picked up a first down by way of penalty, but was halted to a 4th-and-3 situation after only picking up seven yards. Hammond kept the fourth down snap but Cole Christiansen read it all the way as the junior drove the sophomore back for no gain. Turnover on downs.
- Army still needed to gain a first down to secure the win since Air Force stopped the clock with two timeouts. And that's exactly what the Black Knights did as head coach Jeff Monken decided to go for it on 4th-and-1 from the Army 49-yard line.
- After the final cannon sounded the only thing left to do was to Sing Second.

ARMY EXTENDS WINNING STREAK TO SIX GAMES

WEST POINT, N.Y. – The Army West Point football team extended its winning streak to six games following a 31-13 victory over Lafayette.

The Black Knights have now won their last 12 games at Michie Stadium, their longest such streak since winning 13 in a row from Sept. 15, 1984 to Sept. 13, 1986.

Fullback Darnell Woolfolk led the ground attack for the third time this season with 69 yards on 12 carries and two touchdowns. Cam Thomas added 51 rushing yards while totting the ball seven times. Quarterback Kelvin Hopkins Jr. rushed eight times for 22 yards and a score, in addition to going 5-of-6 for 95 yards through the air.

Glen Coates and Christian Hayes each hauled in a team-high two passes, while Coates and Calen Holt both recorded a reception of 30-plus yards.

After their eighth win of the season Saturday, the Black Knights have won 18 of their last 23 games dating back to the start of the 2017 season. Head coach Jeff Monken also has his team 18-3 in day games the last two years, including an 8-0 mark this season.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- John Abercrombie converted on a 25-yard field goal on Army's opening drive of the game that made him a perfect 7-of-7 on kicks this season.
- Woolfolk recorded his third multi-touchdown game of the season. The senior's 34 career rushing touchdowns is good for fifth all-time in Academy history.
- Andy Davidson blocked a punt in the third quarter, which set up an Army score. The Allentown, Pa., native has three career blocked punts to his name and all have resulted in touchdowns.
- Holt found pay dirt for the third time this year and the fourth time in his career.
- Army registered over 400 yards of total offense for the fourth time this season and third time at Michie Stadium.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Black Knights used the opening 10:19 of the game to march 67 yards and take the early 3-0 lead after Abercrombie's 25-yarder. The drive had its struggles though as the Black Knights fumbled, but they were fortunate to recover, and were penalized two for a false start.
- Despite getting stopped on their opening drive of the game with a 3-and-out, the Leopards quickly got the ball back after a fumble on the punt. Lafayette recovered the loose ball at the Army 23 and was within striking distance to take the lead. Fortunately the Cadets' defense held their opponent to just a 42-yard field goal to knot the game at 3-3.
- The Black Knights broke the deadlock with a Woolfolk one-yard touchdown rush early in the second quarter. That drive totaled 75 yards on 10 plays and handed Army the 10-3 advantage with 12:26 left to play in the half.
- The Black Knights made it a two-score game and extended their lead to 17-3 after Holt scampered in from the 8-yard line for the score. A few highlights from the drive were big yardage plays from Artice Hobbs (pickup of 18 yards) and Thomas (rushed for 20 yards). Holt's touchdown capped a 12-play, 94-yard drive that lasted 6:37.
- Lafayette cut into the advantage with a 43-yard field goal just before half that trimmed the Black Knights' lead to 17-6. The Leopards used just 35 seconds of the clock to go 35 yards on six plays.

- Army won the Commander In Chief trophy for the second year in a row marking the first time in program history.
- The Black Knights limited Navy to 10 points, their best defensive performance against the Mids since allowing three points in 1987.
- Army earned its third consecutive win over Navy for its longest winning streak since 1994-96.
- McClinton posted his second interception of the year and the fourth of his career.
- Hopkins Jr. tallied his 12th touchdown of the season.
- The Charlotte, N.C., native was named the game's Most Valuable Player after his third multi-touchdown performance of the season.
- Navy was Army's fifth opponent to be shut out by the Black Knights in the first half this season.
- Walker ran for a career-long 51 yards to set up Hopkins' touchdown on the first drive of the game.
- After going 1-for-3 on fourth downs in the game, Army wrapped up its regular season 31-for-36, which leads the nation.
- John Abercrombie converted on his eighth field goal of the season midway through the third quarter.
- Kenneth Brinson forced his second strip sack of the season.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- Army took the opening kickoff 82 yards in just five plays to set the tone early. The Black Knights' drive was aided by a 51-yard pickup by Walker on 3rd-and-6 from the Army 39. Hopkins then punched it home one play later for the early 7-0 lead.
- The Cadets forced the Mids to go 3-and-out to start the second half. Army then proceeded to move the ball down to the Navy 12, but was hindered by a loss of four yards and a no gain play. The Black Knights had to settle for a 33-yard field goal, which Abercrombie blasted through the uprights to make it a 10-0 ballgame.
- Navy would cut into the lead early in the fourth quarter, when Garrett Lewis found paydirt. Malcolm Perry rushed for 43 yards on the first play of the drive to get the Mids in great field position at the Army 5. Bennett Moehring's point after made it 10-7 Army.
- A few drives later the Black Knights sacked quarterback Zach Abey on 4th-and-12, and forced a fumble in which Brinson recovered at the Navy 22-yard line.
- Hopkins Jr. then converted five plays into the drive, when he scampered in from 1-yard out. Woolfolk had three of the five carries during that stretch to get the Black Knights into prime scoring position. That score made it a 17-7 game with three minutes remaining.
- The Mids wouldn't go away though as they drove the length of the field and converted on a 46-yard field goal to again cut into the advantage at 17-10.
- Fortunately the Cadets fell on Navy's failed on-side kick to ultimately secure the win.

RECORDS FALL IN ARMY'S FOURTH CONSECUTIVE BOWL WIN

FORT WORTH, Texas – The Army West Point football team put on a show here Saturday afternoon when it ran past Houston 70-14 in the 2018 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

The Black Knights earned their second-straight Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl win, their fourth consecutive bowl win, and sixth overall as a program. They became the first school to win three Armed Forces Bowls.

Kelvin Hopkins Jr. was named the bowl MVP after putting up impressive numbers. The junior scampered for 170 yards, while compiling 70 through the air on a perfect 3-of-3 day.

With those numbers, Hopkins Jr. became the first cadet-athlete to run and pass for over 1,000 yards in a season.

James Nachtigal led the Cadets defensive corps registering 3.5 sacks and a career high 16 tackles. Army recorded 10 sacks as a defensive unit, which broke a program record.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- The 56-point margin of victory tied for the largest in the history of college football bowl games.
- The 42 points scored in the first half were the most scored by the Black Knights in an opening half since they did so against Fordham on Oct. 29, 2011.
- The 77-yard touchdown run by Hopkins Jr. in the first quarter was the longest touchdown run for Army in its bowl history.
- The junior ran for over 100 yards for the third time in his career, while he also recorded his fourth multiple touchdown game of his career.
- On the day, Hopkins Jr. rushed for five scores, which tied Carlton Jones' program record achieved against USF in 2004.
- Hopkins became the 17th player in Army history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season and third player under head coach Jeff Monken.
- The Cadets have registered at least 40 rushing touchdowns in each of the last three seasons.
- The 70 points scored on the day were the most put up by Army in its bowl history. It also set a bowl record for points in a game.
- The points were also the most in a game since scoring 81 versus Furman in 1955.
- Army held an opponent to 14 or less points for the fifth consecutive game.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- After forcing the Cougars to punt during their opening drive, the Black Knights used 14 plays to go 80 yards in a little under eight minutes to take the early 7-0 lead. Hopkins Jr. finished off the march with a 1-yard rush for his 12th score of the year.
- Army added to its advantage right before the end of the first quarter when Hopkins Jr. broke free for a 77-yard scamper. After a 3-yard run by Darnell Woolfolk placed the ball at the Army 23, Hopkins Jr. dodged multiple defenders before finding a gap and running into the end zone.
- On the second play of the second period Army converted on a strip sack on Houston's quarterback Clayton Tune. Nachtigal was credited with the sack, while Cam Jones returned the fumble for his first career score to make it a 21-0 ballgame.
- The Cougars finally got on the scoreboard with 12 minutes remaining on the first-half clock. Tune completed a 3-yard pass to Romeo Brooker for their first touchdown of the game.
- Army quickly answered with another TD score to extend its lead to 28-7 when Hopkins Jr. scampered in from 1-yard out. That three-play, 62-yard drive was highlighted by a 54-yard Hopkins Jr.-to-Kjetil Cline connection that placed the ball at the Houston one-yard line.
- The Black Knights continued its offensive attack with two additional touchdowns before halftime to make the score 42-7. Hopkins Jr. scored the first one with 7:24 remaining in the second period, before sophomore slotback Artice Hobbs punched one in from

THE 1944 ARMY TEAM WENT 9-0 CLAIMING THE FIRST OF ARMY'S THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The numbers bound off the page with the explosiveness of a "Doc" Blanchard burst up the middle. Fifty-six points per game ... five-hundred-four points scored ... thirty-five points allowed ... four shutouts ... nine wins without a loss ... six first team All-America selections.

Never before had a college football team authored such astonishing credentials. No squad has been able to duplicate that dominance since. Many college football historians contend the 1944 Army squad ranks as the finest college club ever assembled. Critics are hard-pressed to build a substantive argument against those bold assertions.

It was the prelude to a dynasty, a decade of success never experienced along the banks of the Hudson. And it began with the hiring of Earl "Red" Blaik as Army head coach following the 1940 season.

Blaik enjoyed immediate success at West Point, leading the Cadets to three consecutive winning records during his first three years at the Army helm. With World War II raging, colleges all over the country suspended the eligibility rule for freshmen. West Point was no exception, and Blaik's teams benefitted greatly. The crafty mentor was able to secure appointments for some of the nation's top young players.

The most important addition to the 1943 club was a standout halfback named Glenn Davis. Though only a plebe, Davis starred for the Cadets that year. Another one of Blaik's prized recruits arrived at West Point the following year in the form of Blanchard. Together "Mr. Inside" (Blanchard) and "Mr. Outside" (Davis), as they were labeled, would form one of college football's greatest running duos.

Still the hard-running backfield tandem was but a single component within Army's vast arsenal. In fact, Army's depth was so great that Blaik fielded two squads. The "Lombardo Team," quarterbacked by Tom Lombardo, consisted primarily of plebes, including Blanchard and Davis. The "Kenna Team," led by senior signal caller Doug Kenna, started every game before yielding to Lombardo's unit at the start of the second quarter.

Once asked to select the best game he saw these teams play, Blaik responded, "That's easy. It was a Wednesday afternoon in October when they scrimmaged each other. Each scored two touchdowns, but the intensity and execution were the best I ever have seen on any gridiron, any place."

As a whole, the unit was awesome, easily becoming the first unbeaten and untied team at West Point since 1916. In order, the Cadets pounded North Carolina (46-0), Brown (59-7), Pittsburgh (69-7), Coast Guard (76-0), Duke (27-7) and Villanova (83-0). The Cadets set their sights on mighty Notre Dame next. It had been 13 years since Army had defeated the Irish, but that streak ended at Yankee Stadium as the Cadets registered a surprising 59-0 rout. Fears of a let-down the following week versus Pennsylvania were quickly quelled when Army blitzed the Quakers 62-7.

That verdict set the stage for a climactic showdown with arch-rival Navy. The matchup, pitting the top-ranked Cadets against the second-ranked

ARMY 59, NOTRE DAME 0

Midshipmen, would decide the national championship. A crowd of better than 70,000 packed Baltimore's Municipal Stadium to witness Army roll to a 23-7 victory.

That night Blaik received a telegram: "The greatest of all Army teams—STOP—We have stopped the war to celebrate your magnificent success. MacArthur."

Still one of the most inspirational tributes came from Blaik, himself.

"Seldom in a lifetime's experience is one permitted the complete satisfaction of being part of a perfect performance. To the coaches, the 23-7 is enough. To the squad members, by hard work and sacrifice, you superbly combined ability, ambition, and the desire to win, thereby leaving a rich heritage for future Academy squads. From her sons West Point expects the best—you were the best. In truth, you were a storybook team."

1945 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

As the Army football team prepared for the 1945 season, victory had been declared in the Pacific and Gen. Douglas MacArthur called for a "better world" to emerge from the ashes of World War II.

Soldiers were returning from Europe, and the United States was celebrating the end of almost four years of global conflict. West Point's 1945 grid squad, meanwhile, faced the daunting task of replicating the accomplishments of Army's 1944 team, which included the Cadets' first perfect season in nearly 30 years, a national championship and collegiate records for scoring and scoring margin that still stand today.

Fortunately, Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker returned to see if they could create a football dynasty. The team dubbed "Blair's Black Knights" by New York Sun sportswriter Will Wedge would ultimately measure up to the task.

During an easy 32-0 season-opening victory over Personnel Distribution Command of the Army Air Force stationed at Louisville, Ky., a new star emerged in the Black Knights' constellation. Thomas "Shorty" McWilliams, a plebe who had been a standout at Mississippi State in 1944, guided Army's Wing-T offense to a lopsided win.

The Cadets followed with lopsided verdicts over Wake Forest (54-0), Michigan (28-7), Melville, R.I., USN (55-13), Duke (48-13) and Villanova (54-0). The Cadets expected a stern battle against Notre Dame the next week at Yankee Stadium. More than 75,000 fans witnessed an awesome Army display as the Cadets proved their convincing win over the Irish one year earlier was no fluke, cruising to a 48-0 victory.

A week later, Blanchard and Davis combined for five touchdowns as Army crushed longtime nemesis Pennsylvania 61-0, handing the Quakers their worst loss since 1888. Moreover, that game has been called "Army's peak game of all time." According to noted sportswriter Tim Cohane, "The Black Knights were invincible on the attack, overpowering on the defense. Their blocking and tackling were murderous; their team speed blinding."

The Cadets would need every bit of that talent two weeks later against undefeated Navy in Philadelphia.

THE 1945 TEAM RECORDED FIVE OF ITS NINE VICTORIES BY SHUTOUT.

As was the case in 1944, the game would decide the national championship.

Army raced out to a 20-0 first-quarter lead and the Midshipmen could never recover, falling 32-13 as Blanchard finished with three touchdowns and Davis with two.

Honors came pouring in for the team and its players. Army was the unanimous national champion, and Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Davis was runner-up. Blanchard also received the Maxwell Cup and Walter Camp Trophy as college football's outstanding player, and the Sullivan Award as the outstanding amateur athlete in America. Six Army players were tabbed as first team All-America picks.

Evaluating the squad that year, Blair called it the greatest team he had ever coached. Some have argued that the 1945 Army team was the best in the history of college football. One look at the team's accomplishments makes it hard to debate that assessment.

Blaik acclaimed "Coach of the Year"
National Champions

THE ONLY BLEMISH ON THE 1946 TEAM'S RECORD WAS A 0-0 TIE WITH NOTRE DAME IN A BATTLE OF NO. 1 VS. NO. 2.

Only eight starters from Army's 1945 national championship team returned to the West Point fold the following year as the Cadets attempted to capture a third consecutive national championship. Fortunately for head coach Earl "Red" Blaik, the returning players included standouts Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker.

The Cadets kicked off their 1946 campaign against Villanova, racing to an easy 35-0 victory, but the win was tainted when Blanchard suffered a serious knee injury. Diagnosed as a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a torn membrane, Blanchard's ailment would have sidelined lesser players for the entire year, yet Blanchard would return the following month.

Defeats of Oklahoma (21-7) and Cornell (46-21) followed, setting the stage for a rematch against No. 4 Michigan in the Wolverines' new stadium in Ann Arbor, Mich. Playing for the first time since his knee injury, Blanchard proved little threat to the Wolverines until scoring the game-winning touchdown, sparking second-ranked Army to a 20-13 win.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

Blanchard began to regain his form against Columbia the next week, scoring four times in the Cadets' 48-14 whipping of the Lions. Consecutive 19-0 shutouts of Duke and West Virginia preceded another showdown with No. 1 Notre Dame.

The nation's two top-ranked teams went head-to-head at Yankee Stadium in a classic defensive struggle that ended in a 0-0 tie. Notre Dame stiffened six times with Army inside the Irish 30, while the Cadets allowed Notre Dame past midfield just three times all day. The scoreless deadlock snapped Army's winning streak at 25 and each team maintained its national ranking.

Army shrugged off early offensive lethargy to deal Pennsylvania a 34-7 setback heading into the annual season-ending battle with arch-rival Navy. The season had taken a dreadful toll on the Black Knights, who nonetheless were unbeaten entering the fray.

A crowd of 100,000 jammed Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium for one of the most stunning contests in the history of the series. Army jumped out to a 21-6 halftime bulge, but Navy came roaring back, closing to within 21-18. As time wound down, Navy drove to the Army 3-yard line, but two late plunges by fullback Lynn Chewning and another by Pete Williams, who was corralled by Barney Poole, proved fruitless.

As the ball sat just four yards from paydirt and a Navy upset, the clock ran out on another frenzied service academy classic, providing Army with a 21-18 win and its third straight undefeated season.

Notre Dame was named national champion in five polls that year with Army claiming top honors in two others. The teams were listed as co-champions in three additional rankings.

Still, Army had much to be proud about. Davis accepted the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding football player in the nation. Tucker received the Sullivan Award as the country's outstanding amateur athlete. And Blaik was named "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches Association of America. In all, four Cadets garnered first team All-America honors.

Looking back on his players and the teams of Army's glory years, Blaik said, "Doc and Glenn did more for West Point football than any other player or coach in history."

That fact still holds true today.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

PETE DAWKINS

The John W. Heisman Memorial Trophy Award is presented each year by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the nation's outstanding college football player.

First known as the D.A.C. Trophy, the award was renamed in 1936 for John W. Heisman, the first athletic director of the Downtown Athletic Club, a football player at Pennsylvania and Brown and a coach for 36 years, including tours at Auburn, Oberlin, Clemson, Akron, Pennsylvania, Rice, Washington & Jefferson and Georgia Tech.

The bronze trophy was sculpted by Frank Eliscu with the help of one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen," Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools—Notre Dame (7), Southern California (7), Ohio State (7) and Oklahoma (5)—have had more winners.

Army's "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, and "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, captured the Heisman in back-to-back years in 1945 and 1946, respectively, leading Army to national championships in both years. Just over a decade later (1958), Pete Dawkins led the Cadets to their most recent Lambert Trophy title and their last undefeated season (8-0-1) on his way to earning the honor.

In 1990, Mike Mayweather became the first Army player to attract serious attention from Heisman voters since Dawkins' selection more than 30 years prior. Mayweather, who graduated from West Point in 1991 as Army's all-time leading rusher and the most prolific runner in service academy history, finished 10th in the Heisman balloting, garnering three first-place votes.

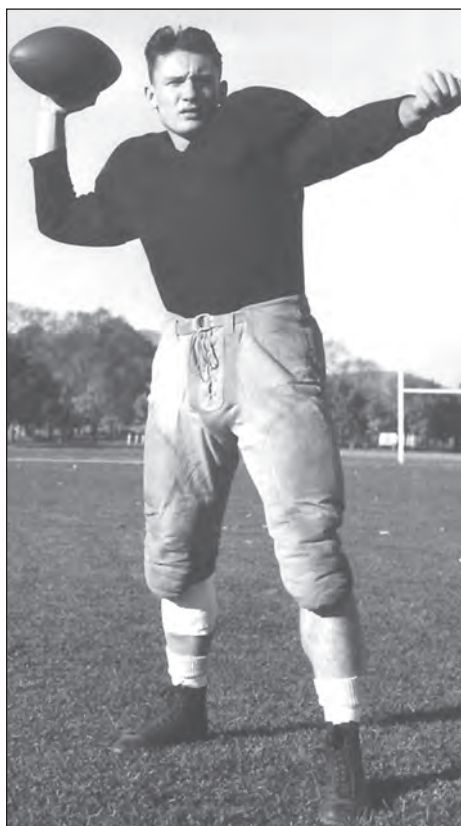

An All-America selection who also finished as second runnerup in voting for the inaugural Doak Walker Award, Mayweather rushed for a then school-record 1,338 yards in 1990, concluding with 4,299 career ground yards, another Army standard.

HALL OF FAME HAS STRONG ARMY INFLUENCE

Founded in 1947 by immortal journalist Grantland Rice, legendary Army coach Earl "Red" Blaik and West Point graduate Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is dedicated to mobilizing the constructive forces of amateur football at all levels for the benefit of society as a whole.

In addition to the visionary foresight of Blaik and MacArthur, who helped shape the Foundation in its early days, the College Hall of Fame carries a distinct Army flavor as 27 former players and coaches have been included among the game's elite. In addition, others with West Point ties, like Bill Yeoman '50 and Bob Neyland '16, have been enshrined.

Recognized as the "Father of Cougar Football," Yeoman forged a sparkling 160-108-8 (.597) record during a 25-year stint at the University of Houston, leading the Cougars to 11 bowl games and four Southwest Conference championships. Neyland, named head coach at Tennessee in 1926, spent 27 seasons at the helm of the Volunteers' program. In that time, his squads amassed a 173-32-12 record and captured four national championships. Neyland was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

The Foundation inducted its first class into the Hall of Fame in 1951, and each year the gridiron's greatest collegians have been enshrined among the pantheon of players who have shaped the game. Today, the College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Ind.

More than 900 players and coaches, who exemplified the Foundation's basic creed of Scholarship, Citizenship and Performance, are honored in a world-class museum.

Former President and Foundation Gold Medal recipient Dwight D. Eisenhower summed up the impact of college football with the following: "In football, in business, in the trades and the professions, the normal urge to excel provides one of the most hopeful assurances that our kind of society will continue to advance and prosper. Morale ... the will to win, the fighting heart ... are the honored hallmarks of the football coach and player. This morale, this will, this heart ... we need not only in athletic teams as individual, but collectively."

Since 1925, when Gus Farwick and Edgar Garbisch competed in the East-West Shrine Game, dozens of Army players have been invited to participate in postseason all-star games. The following list shows those players who appeared in games, and when (year reflective of date game was played).
